LIVE LIKE AN ARISTOCRAT WITH "PARIS PRESTIGE"

Welcome2France.com Launches New Line of Luxury Apartments

(Paris, November 2008) – Anyone who has ever dreamed of staying in Paris like an aristocrat, wealthy nobleman or maybe a world-famous celebrity, has reason to celebrate.

Apartment rental agency Welcome2France is pleased to announce the launch of a new line of ultra-deluxe apartments, called their "Paris Prestige" line.

These new properties offer the level of service and amenities one would expect from world-famous hotels such as the Four Seasons George V. The difference? Welcome2France's "Paris Prestige" apartments offer guests the ability to live – rather than simply "stay" – in Paris, with amenities and living area no hotel suite can match.

All-day maid service, million-dollar furnishings, and access to amenities such as chauffeur-driven Mercedes are just the beginning.

Foch Faisanderie

The stunning Foch Faisanderie collection of apartments means ultra-deluxe comfort in the aristocratic 16th arrondissement, widely regarded as Paris' most majestic and expensive residential area.

The Faisanderie is located in an ornate Haussmann style building. A sweeping marble staircase leads to a sumptuous interior that is the ultimate fusion of royal opulence and 21st century living.

Here, guests can live the life of a modern day squire, surrounded by stunning artwork, antiques and top-of-the-line amenities fit for those with the most discerning tastes.

One of the first design "touches" guests may notice are the small interior columns, adding a tasteful frame to the dining area, which also features gorgeous floors and chandeliers. A blend of modern and traditional artwork adorns the walls, and the ceiling has a beautifully painted fresco that harkens back to the age of royalty.

These apartments also come equipped with a full-time attendant, to pamper guests with years of expertise. In addition to daily maid service, the attendant prepares meals, takes care of guests' laundry, and can help organize a lunch or dinner party.

Guests are even asked to provide a list of their favorite colors and flowers in advance, so their attendant can customize the apartment before they arrive.

Victor Hugo II

One of these new Paris Prestige apartments, the Victor Hugo II, weighs in at a whopping 2,960 sq. ft. (275 sq. m.).

A short walk to the Arc de Triomphe and Champs Elysées, the stunning property spans two levels, and features a living room with cathedral ceiling, fireplace, piano, chandeliers, tapestries, and a host of amazing modern amenities. For example, all beds come equipped with the Sofitel "Mybed" system.

Amazing "extras" include housekeeper, free airport pickup and dropoff, and a free concierge service for any service to be had in France.

Security goes the extra mile, with double code-protected premises, indestructible doors, and alarm systems on all windows. Multiple large and small safes (a "master safe" for the apartment, and a smaller safe in each room) are on site to guard guests' valuables.

The apartment also includes all the comforts of modern living, from apartment-wide DSL WiFi Internet, satellite TV, stereo, plasma screen home cinema, and much more.

Kitchen includes top-of-the-line appliances and everything guests need to entertain.

At 1,610 Euros per night, this degree of luxury doesn't come cheap, but the price is certainly right for those who require this level of opulence.

Royal Service

Welcome2France's friendly staff is dedicated to paying attention to the smallest details of guests' experience.

Guests are greeted with delicacies, flowers and of course chilled champagne, all compliments of Welcome2France.

The "Paris Prestige" apartments are a way of going beyond the hotel: to experience the dream of living in Paris like an aristocrat.

About Welcome2France.com

Founded in 2002, Welcome2France.com has received praise from news outlets such as USA Today as a great alternative to the traditional hotel. Made up of a collection of beautiful Paris apartments from a variety of independent owners, Welcome2France is managed by co-founder Sophie Saint Honore. Sophie takes pride in offering all the benefits of an agency without any of the aloofness that agencies can be known for. Personality and personal touches illuminate each property, and every interaction with the company.
